

I arrived at southwestern 7th grade center in the fall of 1972. I was one of 5 new teachers. Betty Cunningham, Marcia Riley, Colleen Isles (Watts), Steve Stephenson and me, Don Tutt. The school had been a 7th grade center since 1969 when the dual school system of Volusia County was shut down. When I arrived Bill Beachum was the principal and Earl McCrary was assistant principal and Miss Edith Shannon the office.
